

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

HOUSEBOAT LA DUCHESSE
The Antique Boat Museum
Clayton
Jefferson County
New York

HAER NY-338

Photos Taken in September, 2005 while docked at The Antique Boat Museum.

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Todd A Croteau, photographer, 2005

NY-338-1	3/4 view of starboard elevation from stern forward.
NY-338-2	Stern elevation with balcony.
NY-338-3	Detail of stern elevation showing balcony, railings, and storage closets on lower deck.
NY-338-4	"Dancing Deck" screened area on upper deck with furniture.
NY-338-5	Steinway piano and stained glass clerestory window in lounge area, upper deck. Hot water radiators can be seen at base of wall. These run throughout the houseboat.
NY-338-6	Lounge area, upper deck, with fireplace in background
NY-338-7	Master bedroom, upper deck, at stern end.
NY-338-8	Master bedroom looking forward towards closets and hallway.
NY-338-9	Dining room, main deck, looking forward towards cupboards and hallway entrance.
NY-338-10	Dining room looking aft towards kitchen, fireplace, and stairway at right.
NY-338-11	Detail of dining room fireplace, with cast brass sea shells and Admiralty dolphins.

HOUSEBOAT LA DUCHESSE

HAER NY-338

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

(Page 2)

NY-338-12	Kitchen looking forward to dining room.
NY-338-13	Main deck bedroom hallway looking aft towards dining room.
NY-338-14	Typical guest bedroom, main deck, with "captains bunk". Note the wood paneling.
NY-338-15	Servants bedroom, main deck with bunk. Note the plain painted surfaces.